In the Smart Set of Washington

Many Entertainments Are Planned by the Leaders of Society in Washington. Gossip of Hostesses.

Mrs. James W. Bailey is entertaining at a bridge party of three tables this afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Stedman, wife of Col. Clarence A. Stedman, U. S. A., and her guest, Mrs. C. F. Howland, of Boston.

Mrs. Bowman H. McCalla and Miss Leila W. Waller will preside at the tea table. The other guests are Mrs. Charles W. Kutz, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. Walter Howe, Mrs. John Temple Graves, Mrs. Joseph B. Edson, Mrs. Medora Crawford, Mrs. William Baird, Mrs. R. C. Holcombe, Miss Frances Smith, and Mrs. George Roosevelt.

Mrs. Albert R. and Miss Helen Cooper are giving a bridge party today in honor of Miss May Allie and Miss Genevieve Downs, of Derby, Conn. The house is elaborately decorated with palms, ferns, and dogwood, while a huge bowl of jonquills adorns the tea table, at which Mrs. Eugene Burns and Mrs. Charles Schaefer will do the honors.

The guests include Mrs. Dorothy Berthoff, Miss Hazel Cox, Miss Frances Miller, Miss Anne Darale, Miss Dorothy Smallwood, Miss Daniel Ritter, Miss Maude Parker, Mrs. C. M. Maigne, Miss Ann Tuohy, Mrs. Hugh Baum, Mrs. Edward Harrington, Miss Helene Oyster, Miss Virginia Millan, Miss Margaret Weller, Miss Rebecca Ross, Miss Glendon Millan, Miss Mary Williamson, Miss Katherine Williamson, Miss Anne Wright Huske, Miss Eugene Swanson, Miss Edmund Piper, Miss Edith McQuade, Miss Marie Adams, Miss Marie Howser, Miss Wilmer Mitchell, Miss Anne Eliot Pennebaker, Miss Leila Howard, and Mrs. Royal McKenna.

The Rev. T. A. Haughton-Burke, rector of Christ Church, Rockville, was host at a luncheon at the Powhatan. His guests were sixty ministers from Virginia, Maryland, and the District.

Mrs. W. M. Garrison is hostess at a small informal bridge party this afternoon, complimentary to her house guest, Mrs. J. Adams Brown, of New York. Mrs. Luther Craig will pour tea.

Mrs. H. W. Beck gave a luncheon of thirty covers yesterday at the Hotel Powhatan. Her guests included the Indiana delegates who are in Washington attending the D. A. R. Congress.

Mrs. J. Eakin Gadabay has cards out for a bridge party on Monday afternoon at her residence on R street.

Invitations have been issued for Presentation Day, the anniversary exercises of Gallaudet College, to be held May 2 at 3 o'clock at Kendall Green.

Mrs. Christian D. Hennick is inviting Paul Swan, "the most beautiful man in the world," to take part in her Persian play, "The Opium Pipe," to be given at the Belasco Theater on April 27 at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. Swan is a dancer and recently electrified New York by his version of the Rubaiyat, a "soul dance," which he expected to repeat at the performance of "The Opium Pipe."

Mrs. Caroline Ogden Jones will go to Philadelphia early in June to be maid of honor and the only attendant at the marriage of Miss Edith Tikhman Kneeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Kneeder, of Chestnut Hill, to Dr. Alexander Randall. The marriage will take place at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. Charles B. McVay will be hostess at a bridge party on Saturday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. James F. Mitchell, who went to Baltimore yesterday to attend the marriage of Dr. Mitchell's niece, Miss Dorsey Waits, to Robert Wright Forsythe, will leave today for Cleveland, where Dr. Mitchell will deliver an address.

Mrs. Victor Kaufmann is entertaining informally at bridge this afternoon, followed by tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaufmann will leave Washington on Saturday for a week-end motor trip to the Blue Ridge Mountains.

The Misses Timlow, of Scott Circle, will give a reception tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock to the New Jersey delegation to the D. A. R. Congress, and especially in honor of the Eagle Rock chapter of Mountclair, the former home of the hostess.

Little Miss Grace Louise Raff, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Raff, was hostess at a birthday party yesterday. The guests were Alice Reid Cushing, Elizabeth Cushing, Sallie Abell, Marguerite Abell, Anita Tilly, Catherine Tilly, Nan Program, Winifred Lamb, and Bobbie Bourne.

The exhibition of mountain crafts and cabin industries being held all this week at the Southern Industrial Association, at their headquarters, 221 Southern building, in honor of the delegates to the D. A. R. convention, is attracting many visitors. The room is decorated with flowers, sent from the White House conservatories, by Miss Margaret Wilson, the honorary president of the association.

Madame Yanes, wife of the assistant director general of the Pan-American Union, was hostess at a luncheon yesterday at Raucher's, in compliment to Mrs. J. Selwin Tait, invited to the same. Madame Yanes' guests were Mrs. Rufus Day, Mrs. George W. Porter, Mrs. Robert Lerner, Mrs. Archibald Grace, Mrs. Lincoln Valentine, Mrs. J. G. Mackey, Mrs. Crosthwaite, and Mrs. Frazier D. Head.

A performance of Euripides' "Trojan Women" will be given under the auspices of the Woman's Peace Party at the Columbia Theater on the afternoon of May 1, as part of their peace propaganda. The play will be produced by the members of the Little Theater Company, of Chicago, backed by the Carpani, of Chicago. Many new scenic and lighting effects will be introduced, and the production is expected to be an artistic triumph.

Weddings-Engagements.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woodward, in Seventeenth street, was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday evening, when their daughter, Lillian Gertrude, became the bride of William J. Finley. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock, with Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, of New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, officiating.

The bride was given away by her father, who was followed by a reception. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was handsomely gowned in white satin and wore a large bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white and carried bouquets of white and pink flowers. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword.

The home was attractively decorated with palms, ferns, and spring flowers. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Finley left for Atlantic City, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mrs. Finley wore a going-away gown of navy blue gabardine, trimmed with silk, with a smart blue hat to match. After their honeymoon they will reside in Washington.

Masses of ferns, palms, and white lilies decorated the Mt. Pleasant Congregational Church last night when Miss May Windsor Willson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Willson, became the bride of Robert Reynolds Burkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Burkin, of the Rev. Clarence Vincent officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin with an empire bodice and a bolero jacket of chantilly lace. A court train hung from the shoulders. The tulle veil was finished with a cap of chantilly lace, carried with orange blossoms. She caught a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Emily C. Shedd, who was maid of honor, was gowned in blue and green messaline, and carried a huge bunch of white lilies, tied with green gauze. As did the two bridesmaids, Miss May Roper, daughter of the First Assistant Postmaster General and Mrs. Daniel C. Roper, and Miss Maud Burkin, sister of the bridegroom. Their gowns were of embroidered net over pale green satin. Miss Elizabeth Edmonds and Miss Harriet Mitchell, who were the flower girls, wore dainty white frocks with green ribbons, and carried baskets of white roses.

Frank Flinckback acted as best man, who is the nephew of Dr. E. Washburn, W. L. Eddy, Nelson Stewart, and T. L. Moran.

Green and white were also the decorations at the home of the bride on Kenyon street, where a small reception followed the ceremony. The young couple left for a trip North, the bride wearing a dark blue tailored suit and a small blue straw hat with trimmings of sand color. Mr. and Mrs. Burkin will make their home in Washington.

Miss Ruth L. Andersen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Andersen, and David Ralph Miller, of Syracuse, N. Y., were married yesterday at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride, 1611 Newton street, the Rev. John T. Huddle, pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church, officiating.

The house was decorated with palms, ferns, lilies, and cut flowers. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dark blue tailored suit with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias. Miss Dorothy Peyton Putski, who was maid of honor, was gowned in dark blue silk, with touches of red, and hat to match. Her bouquet was of red roses.

After a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for an extended wedding trip. They will be at home after May 15 at 2229 Monroe street.

Dinners and Dances

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Garrison gave a dinner last evening in honor of Mrs. Fielder, wife of the Governor of New Jersey, who is their house guest. The Secretary and Mrs. Garrison will open their cottage at Seabright, N. J., about the middle of June.

Miss Frances Effinger will entertain at a dinner dance at the Grafton this evening in compliment to Miss Anne Seymon Jones and Lieut. S. Roland Hopkins, U. S. A., whose marriage will take place early in June. Last evening Miss Dorothy Taylor gave a dinner in honor of Miss Jones and her fiancé. The additional guests were Miss Helen McCumber, Miss Antoinette Ray, Miss Frances Effinger, Miss Elsie Leber, Douglas Hilmyer, Pitman Spring, Edward

Another of Our Special Sales of

MEN'S NIGHT SHIRTS

AND PAJAMAS

This lot of Night Shirts and Pajamas consists of samples and seconds of the same manufacturer who regularly supplies us with his surplus for our special sales. We represent him in Washington exclusively.

Very attractive price concessions are made because the garments are slightly mussed or soiled, and some of them imperfect to the extent of oil spots, dropped stitches, etc., which do not affect their desirability or wearing quality in the least.

For convenience of selection we have assorted the garments on tables and classified them according to price as listed below.

Night Shirts

At 38c each—Values 50c to 65c. Outing flannel, cambric, and cotton Night Shirts, with collars or ve neck; soiled; size 17.

At 55c each—Values 75c and 85c. Cambric and Cotton Night Shirts, ve neck or with collar; size 17; soiled.

At 68c each—Values $1.00 and $1.50. Muslin, Cambric and Mercerized Cotton Night Shirts, ve neck or with collar; size 17; slightly soiled.

Pajamas

Items of Interest and Importance of Past, Present, and Future Among Official and Fashionable Folk.

Quintard, Lieut. Alexander James, U. S. A., and Lieut. McCaughy, U. S. A.

The last dance of the series being given by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, at the Confederate Memorial Home, will take place on the evening of April 29, instead of the evening of April 28, as previously planned. The change was made to avoid conflict with the Dixie ball held last evening at the Raleigh Hotel.

The annual Dixie ball, given under the auspices of Robert E. Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, at the Raleigh last night, was a successful and full of interest as in former years. The ballroom was filled and dancing lasted until late. The ball was given for the benefit of the Confederate Memorial Home, and, as usual, was attended by a large company representative of Washington's most distinguished Southern contingent. The rooms were
